Why do we celebrate Juneteenth?

On June 19, 1865, two years after President Lincoln delivered the Emancipation Proclamation, Union troops announced to enslaved people in Galveston, Texas that they were finally free.

On Juneteenth, we recognize the importance of African American history and celebrate diversity and the fight for justice and equality in our country.

Juneteenth was recognized as a national holiday on June 17, 2021.

Jada Rome (center) of Hermiston was awarded a diversity college scholarship from the Union Pacific Railroad at the 2021 Hermiston Juneteenth celebration at McKenzie Park.
